Ferguson named

T. Keith Ferguson, a graduate of Appomattox County High School, has been appointed senior management engineer by Carolinas Hospital and Health Services, Inc., (CHHS).

CHHS is a not-for-profit shared services corporation that provides technical and professional resources to Southeastern community hospitals under some 400 service agreements. The firm has headquarters in Charlotte, N. C., and regional offices in Raleigh, N.C., West Columbia, S. C., and Atlanta, Ga., and field offices in Richmond, Va., Greensboro, N. C., and Montgomery, Ala.

Ferguson joined the management engineering and consulting division of CHHS in July, 1978. He presently provides Lexington Memorial Hospital, Inc., in Lexington and Stanly County Hospital, Inc., in Albemarle with management engineering support on a shared basis. His new responsibilities include staff supervision, marketing, and managing some other special projects in the Southern Piedmont.

Ferguson is a graduate of Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Va., where he earned a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering and operations research. He is currently pursuing the requirements for a master's degree in business administration from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Work seminar set

The Marketing and Distributive Education Department at Appomattox County High School will be holding an Employment Seminar for adults who desire training in the art of applying, interviewing and getting a job.

This seminar is designed for those individuals who are in the job market but are presently unemployed, those who are presently employed but wish to make a job or career change and for those who are not presently in the job market but are considering entering or re-entering the job market.

Topics to be discussed are: selecting a job that's right for you, applying for a job, preparing a winning resume, selling yourself during the job interview, and following up on the job search.

The Employment Seminar will meet Wednesday and Thursday evenings (6:30 - 9:00 p.m.) June 16 and 17 in room 305 at Appomattox County High School. There is no charge for the seminar but pre-registration is required because class enrollment will be limited. To pre-register or for more information call Cheryl Hyatt at 352-5317 or Mr. R. B. Carter at 352-8253.

DD auditions set

Auditions for the Depot Dramatics' production of Damn Yankees will be June 21, 1982, at 7:00 p.m. in the Southern States building. The large-cast musical comedy will be presented July 29, 30 and 31 and requires all age groups.

Those auditioning will be required to read a scene from the play, and anyone interested in a solo, part should be prepared to sing a song of his own choice. An accompanist will be present, but auditioners should bring music unless they plan to accompany themselves.

Depot Dramatics has successfully presented Bye Bye Birdie and Guys and Dolls. Most people, who have been involved in a community theatre production of the past, will agree that it was an enjoyable and worthwhile experience.

For further information on audition procedure, interested persons may contact Tamara Nash (352-8001) or Joyce Sweet (248-5390).

MRS. HENRIETTA P. JOHNSON

Johnson honored

The staff of the Appomattox Primary School honored Mrs. Henrietta P. Johnson with a reception on June 7. Those in attendance included Mrs. Johnson's family, former retired friends, and members of the school staff.

Words of praise and commendation were expressed by Superintendent, Mr. Lloyd Walton, and Mrs. Johnson's colleagues; Mrs. Virginia Good, Miss Linda Chittum, and Mrs. Catherine Miller. Mrs. Patricia Torrence, principal, read a letter dated 1943 written by Mrs. Johnson to Mr. J. A. Burke, Superintendent, to reminisce about schools in the 40's.

A momentous scrapbook and an engraved silver tray were presented to Mrs. Johnson in appreciation of her example as a true, dedicated professional...one in which parents contin... "I wish she could be my child's teacher!"

Five attain honors

Five students from this area--Jan Renee Coggins, Julia Craun Compton, Karen Lynn Covington, Molly Ruth Handy and Janice May Marston--distinction of earning an academic average of 3.5 (B+) from a possible 4.0 during the second semester of the college year.

In addition, three of the students from this area, Covington, Handy and Marston, earned a perfect 4.0 average during the second semester. Only 97 students among the total enrollment of 2,500 accomplished this.

Barger graduates

Scot M. Barger

Scot M. Barger of Warrenton, Va. was among 230 first classman who received diplomas at Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va. during commencement exercises on May 15, 1982.

Barger is the son of Mrs. Robert Doyle of Warrenton, Va. and Robert M. Barger of Denver, Colo., and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Barger of Appomattox.

A distinguished graduate, receiving a 3.5 grade point average, Scot was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force.

Attending the commencement exercises from Appomattox were Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Barger, Mrs. William A. Burke and children, Van and Ashely and John D. Simpson III.

Scholarship fund set

The Appomattox County Assembly, set up a scholarship fund to benefit the children of the Assembly. The president, Mr. Thomas Chilton, kicked the fund off, with a generous gift. It's anticipated that all members will follow his leadership. This fund hopefully will have materialized in the next five years, to the advantage, of furthering the educational opportunities of the children of this organization.

The Assembly wishes to congratulate, our member, Mrs. Henrietta P. Johnson, in her appointment to the Appomattox County School Board.

A job pool has been set up by this organization, details of which will appear in another section of this paper.

Volturo assigned

Airman Anthony V. Volturo, son of Vincent A and Judith B. Volturo of Route 3, Appomattox, Va., has been assigned to Lowry Air Force Base, Colo., after completing Air Force basic training.

Volturo is a 1980 graduate of Appomattox County High School.
